Bonza Bike Tours and Sydney Olympic Park Announce Joint Offering

Bonza's Self-Guided Bike Tour Showcases Sydney Olympic Park!

SYDNEY, 23 April 2007 — Bonza Bike Tours and Sydney Olympic Park are proud to announce the launch of the new Bonza Self-Guided Bike Tour at Sydney Olympic Park. The offering provides visitors with easy access to the precinct and great value as they explore the site of the "Best Games Ever", the 2000 Olympic Games.

The Sydney Olympic Park Package, available for bookings through Bonza Bike Tours, includes the following:

- Full Day Bike Hire (bicycle, helmet, lock included)
- Listen Live© Self-Guided Audio Tour
- DayTripper Public Transportation Pass (valid until 4am on Sydney buses, trains, and ferries)
- Free Bottled Water, Coffee, and Maps of City and Sydney Olympic Park
- Free Entry into the Aquatic Centre
- Discount Vouchers for Sydney Olympic Park and Bonza Bike Tours to the Value of Over $35!!!

"We are excited to partner with Sydney Olympic Park to give visitors from Australia and around the world a fun and easy way to enjoy a day at one of the city's most impressive precincts," said Michael Herrmann, founder of Bonza Bike Tours.

This package gives visitors the opportunity to explore the 35kms of safe, off-road cycle paths at Sydney Olympic Park as well as ride among the fabulous Olympic venues. As they ride, guests will enjoy the 'Listen Live' self-guided audio tour of the Olympic venues and beautiful surrounding parklands. The tour gives interesting information about the Olympic venues, all the modern Olympic Games, and the unique site that hosted the 'Best Games Ever'.

The Sydney Olympic Park Package will be available direct to the public through the Bonza Bike Tours website immediately. Bookings can be made online at www.bonzabiketours.com for the internet special rate of $84.00 AUD per adult and $76.00 AUD per child. In addition, international wholesalers will provide a vast distribution channel across the globe.
