WINING & DINING

CAFE: You can't go past the Sandbar Cafe on The Esplanade Street, Balmoral, for location and a relaxed atmosphere. The cafe offers spectacular water views and tasty food with especially fabulous coffee. It is a great place to watch the world go by on weekends.

RESTAURANT: One of my favourite places to have dinner in Sydney is the Watermark Restaurant in Balmoral. If you are looking for the whole package: relaxation, class, delicious food, lovely views and great service; all you have to do is spend an evening here. It's a great place to catch up with family and friends over a gorgeous meal.

NIGHTLIFE: The Opera Bar at the Opera House has to be my favourite nightspot (after home!). The views are spectacular and it's a wonderful spot to soak up the Sydney Harbour scene. It is the perfect place to take visitors and show off our amazing city!

WHAT'S ON

The exemplary Sydney Theatre Company, the group behind last year's sell-out Hedda Gabler that starred Cate Blanchett, has a couple of productions well worth catching this month. David Williamson's Influence is a biting funny play about the personalities that dominate our media, while Democracy delves into post-war West Germany. Where and when:

Influence: Sydney Opera House. Until 30 April. Democracy: at Sydney Theatre, Walsh Bay. Previews from 9 April, opens 14 April. Price: Previews $39, adults $66. Contact: Call (02) 9250 1777 or visit www.sydneytheatre.com.au.

Zoe Carides stars in Influence.

CITY SECRETS

Rain or shine, Bonza Bikes (below) will take you on guided rides through some of Sydney's most colourful inner-city precincts. Cycle your way around The Rocks and Darling Harbour before pedalling through the CBD and the leafy surrounds of Hyde Park and the Royal Botanic Gardens. You'll learn some fascinating history, culture and trivia tidbits, and there's a pub stop too. Where and when: Departures Oct-May at 10.30am and 2.30pm from the Opera House. Price: Adults $60, children and backpackers $45. Contact: Call (02) 9331 1127 or visit www.bonzabiketours.com.

THINGS TO DO FOR UNDER $15

In 1879, Rodolphe Lindt created his world-famous process to create exquisite chocolate, and since then there's been no looking back for chocolate-lovers worldwide! If you're one of the chocoholics who owes a debt to his creation, make a pilgrimage to the world's first Lindt concept store in Sydney's Martin Place. Indulge in chocolate drinks, pastries, waffles, ice-cream and cakes. Where and when: 53 Martin Place. Mon-Fri 7am-7pm, Sat 10am-4pm. Price: From $14 for 100g chocolates. Contact: Call (02) 8257 1600.
